

CONCEPT NOTE

Legal Careers in the 21st Century: Exploring Diverse Paths in Law

OVERVIEW

The Nabo Graham Douglas Chambers, Faculty of Law, Rivers State University, presents a two-day webinar designed to expose early-year law students to the diverse and evolving career opportunities within the legal profession. Moving beyond traditional perceptions of legal practice, this webinar highlights both established and emerging fields, equipping participants with the knowledge to make informed career choices.

OBJECTIVES

- To broaden students' understanding of career opportunities in law
- To provide practical insights into key areas of legal practice
- To Guide students on how to identify and pursue suitable career paths
- To guide students in making informed career decisions early
- To highlight the impact of technology on the legal profession

TARGET AUDIENCE

- 100 and 200 level law students
- Members of the Nabo Graham Douglas Chambers
- Interested students within and outside the faculty of Law, Rivers State University.

EVENT DETAILS

This webinar will be featuring five distinguished speakers across different areas of legal practice.

- Format: Virtual Webinar (zoom/Google meet/
- Duration: Two (2) Days
- Time: 7:00 PM daily
- Speaking Time: 25-35 minutes per speaker (including Q&A)

DAY 1

(Three Speakers)

Speaker 1: Litigation

Topic: Litigation Practice: Building a Career in Advocacy and Courtroom Practice.

Focus Areas:

- Overview of litigation as a career
- Skills required for effective advocacy
- Courtroom dynamics and real-life practice insights
- Opportunities and challenges in litigation.

Speaker 2: Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)

Topic: Exploring Career Opportunities in Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR).

Focus Areas:

- Introduction to arbitration and ADR mechanisms
- Differences between litigation and arbitration
- Career opportunities in arbitration (local & international)
- Skills needed to succeed in ADR practice.

Speaker 3: AI, Technology & Law

Topic: The Intersection of Law and Technology: Navigating the Future with AI

Focus Areas:

- Impact of Technology on legal practice

- Emerging tech driven legal careers
- How students can position themselves for tech related opportunities.

DAY 2

(Two Speakers)

Speaker 4: intellectual Property

Topic: Protecting Innovation: Career Opportunities in Intellectual Property Law

Focus Areas:

- Overview of IP law (copyright, trademarks, patents)
- Importance of IP in a digital and creative economy
- Career paths in IP law
- Practical steps to get started in the field

Speaker 5: Career Development

Topic: Finding Your Path: How to Choose the Right Legal Career for You.

This webinar serves as a strategic platform to orient young law students toward the realities and opportunities within the legal profession. By engaging experts across key fields, the program fosters early career awareness and informed decision-making.